Course Description

ALP-007 American Language Foundations: Writing is a course in writing for academic purposes for English language learners with little or no prior exposure to English. It provides students with instruction in the spelling of English and practice in writing sentences and paragraphs.

3 lec., 3 non-degree credits. Pre-requisite or Co-requisite: ALP-004/005

Course Texts and/or Other Study Materials:

1. Longman Academic Writing Series 1 (2nd edition) by Linda Butler
   AND

   by Steven Molinsky and Bill Bliss
   AND

3. Word by Word (Beginning Vocabulary Workbook with Audio CD)
   by Steven Molinsky and Bill Bliss
   ISBN: 0-13-189229-0

Student Learning Outcomes:

As a result of meeting the requirements in this course, students will:
• Use pre-writing techniques: discussion, diagramming.
• Use a combination of simple and compound sentences in narrative, descriptive, and process paragraphs.
• Write paragraphs with topic sentence, supporting sentences and concluding sentence.
• Demonstrate beginning competence in using grammatical structures: simple present, past and future tenses and verb forms; subject pronouns, possessive adjectives, and object pronouns; adjectives and adverbs; word order.
• Demonstrate beginning competence with mechanics: format, punctuation and capitalization.
• Use vocabulary from the General Service List.

Means of Assessment

To determine whether students have achieved course goals, teachers will evaluate:

In-class and at-home writing assignments in sentence form and paragraph form;
Pre-writing strategies and editing.

At the end of the course, all students take a course-wide final examination. The final exam is a level wide in-class essay. Students will write one of the following essay types: process, description, or narration. The final exam counts toward 30% of the final grade. Practice final exams are made available to acquaint the students with test format and content.

Special Features of the Course (if any) [to be designated by the instructor]:
E.g. the use of learning technologies in the course (Internet, PowerPoint, Moodle, etc.)

Grading Policy (to be designated by the instructor)

A student’s final grade for the course is based primarily on his/her performance on the required work for the course (homework, writing assignments, and tests), class participation, group work and on his/her overall mastery of the material covered in the course. Sample grading policy:

Homework and Class participation: 20%
Chapter Tests: 50%
Level-wide Final Exam: 30%

Grade Breakdown:
A 90-100
B+ 86-89
B 80-85
C+ 76-79
C 70-75
D 65-69
F 64-below

Attendance Policy: (to be designated by the instructor) Sample:
Students are expected to attend class regularly and punctually. Attendance will be taken at each class session. If students occasionally arrive late, they should enter quietly, and not disturb the class. If students miss class, they should find out what they missed. It is probably a good idea for students to exchange telephone numbers with other students as a way to find out about missed classes. Poor attendance will affect a student’s grade. If a student’s absence exceeds one and a half times the number of weekly meetings, the student’s grade will be lowered by one full letter grade. If a student is absent excessively, the student can expect to fail the course. Lateness counts, too. Two late arrivals will equal one absence.

Statement on Accommodations for Disabilities

Bergen Community College aims to create inclusive learning environments where all students have maximum opportunities for success. Any student who feels he or she may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact the Office of Specialized Services at 201-612-5269 or via email at ossinfo@bergen.edu for assistance.
