Course Description

Stage Management is a hands-on approach to learning the art of stage managing a live theatrical event. The student is exposed to the fundamentals of organizing and implementing rehearsals, production meetings, technical rehearsals and run of play. 1 lectures, 1 credits
Prerequisite: THR-131
Student Learning Objectives: As a result of meeting the requirements of this course, students will be able to

1. Be responsible for the calling of all rehearsals.
2. Assemble and maintain the Prompt Book, or Production Book, which is the encyclopedia and eventually the official record of the production. 1) It is the single reference for the process of the production. 2) It should allow anyone familiar with stage managing to operate the show in your absence. 3) It will become the official record of the show.
3. Work with the Director and the other collaborative artists, during rehearsal and after opening, schedule rehearsals and outside calls.
4. Assume active responsibility for the form and discipline of rehearsal and performance, and be the executive instrument in the technical running of each performance.
5. Responsible for the writing and distribution of Rehearsal Reports and Performance Reports.
6. Maintain the artistic intentions of the Director and the Producer after opening, to the best of their ability, including calling correctional rehearsals of the company when necessary.
7. Keep such records as are necessary to advice the Producer on matters of attendance, time or other matters.
8. Maintain discipline among the cast and crew.

Learning Assessments:

In support of the above-mentioned goals, the course will include reading, writing, listening, viewing and discussion assignments from the textbook and from outside sources. Students will take an active part as either stage managing or assistant stage managing a school production.

Objectives will be assessed as follows:

1. Call all rehearsals.
2. Assemble and maintain a Prompt Book.
3. Work with the Director and other collaborative artists during rehearsals and performances.
4. Run all rehearsals and performances and be sole responsible for the technical running of the performance.

5. Write and distribute rehearsal and performance reports.

6. Maintain the production at the same artistic level that the Director created for opening night.

7. Keep records of attendance, times of performances, etc.

8. Be the disciplinarian for the performers and crew.

Course Content

Stage Management – introduces the fundamentals of stage managing a live theatrical event. Students will have a hands-on knowledge of how to run rehearsals, maintain a Prompt Book, manage technical rehearsal, insure the artistic quality of the production, and maintain communication between the producer, director and collaborative artists.

Technological Literacy

Technological literacy and/or information literacy is one expectation of this course. Students will be encouraged use and understand basic software packages like MS Word and Excel. Student will also be expected to learn the computer operated sound board and lighting board.

Course Texts and/or Other Study Materials

Recommended: Stern, Lawrence. Stage Management. Allyn and Bacon. 2006 (Eighth Edition)
Grading Policy

The final grade in this course will be determined by a student’s overall mastery of the subject matter as evidenced by the organization and implementation of rehearsals, Prompt Book, technical rehearsals and run of play.

Criteria for Evaluation:

Prompt Book:
Student will keep a book of the play that they stage manage. This book is the official text for the production. It includes all changes, additions, and deletions to the text; all necessary blocking and staging information required to create the show; and all cues and warning for the production.

Production/Post Mortem Meetings:
Meetings with the Director, Producer and all of the Collaborative Artists to discuss concept, designs, implementation of the creative with the practical as well as a wrap up of the production.

Rehearsal Reports:
A daily written report that includes date, cast members who were late or absent, cast changes, the scene of scenes that were blocked or run, the number of times these scenes were run, delays, and causes for delays in rehearsals, and any significant occurrence out of the ordinary and notes for any additions or changes made to the departments (costumes, props, etc.).

Performance Reports:
These will take the place of the Rehearsal Reports once the show has opened. These are similar to the rehearsal reports but these reports shift from the technically-oriented organization to an audience, business and artistic focus.
