Art 104 Modern Art 1890-1940

I. Catalogue Description: Modern Art and Visual Culture from 1890 to 1940 is a chronological survey of selected works of European and American painting, sculpture, architecture, and photography. These demonstrate both individual artists’s innovative thinking and visual art’s prominent role in the formation of culture, society, and the idea of modernity in relation to historical art, urbanism, spiritualism and war. Three Hours. No prerequisites.

II. Student Learning Objectives: As a result of meeting the requirements of this course, students will be able to
A. Identify major periods of art history, and exemplary works of art and visual culture, from 1890 to 1940, that is, Post-Impressionism through Surrealism.
B. Define and use vocabulary of visual analysis in speech and writing
C. Describe the materials used and the techniques employed to make works of art in a variety of media in these periods and cultures
D. Describe how political, social and economic situations influence the creation of works of art and their meaning and significance
E. Analyze the difference between perceiving a work of art viewed projected in class, on the internet and experienced directly within museum contexts.

IV. Special Features of the Course
A. All lectures are illustrated with images in compilations created by the professor which cannot be found or created elsewhere. Groupings of review images are provided online.
B. Two assignments – to complete worksheets analyzing paintings and to write an 800-1000-word paper comparing works of art – require that students go to, and independently view on their own time, particular works at the Museum of Modern Art and one other museum located in New York City, per specific assignments.

V. Sources of Required Readings:
B. Reserve readings [at discretion of individual professor]
C. Other useful online sources of information www.artstor.org Register the first time from a BCC computer through the library’s list of databases
   Grove Art Online, available through the Silverman Library’s online databases
   The Metropolitan Museum’s Timeline of Art History www.metmuseum.org/toah
   World Gallery of Art http://www.wga.hu
