Research, Writing, and/or Examination Requirement(s)
Students are expected to do outside research about the artists we study in class as well as attend exhibitions if they are appropriate to the course study.

Grading Policy

Students will be graded based on their understanding of the course material. This will include the quantity of work produced as well as the quality of the work. In addition, students will be graded on the degree of progress as well as their ability to complete assignments on time.

A = Excellent work and high level of effort
B+, B = High caliber work and effort
C+, C = Average work and effort
D = Below average work and effort
F = Poor work and little to no effort; does not complete assignments

30%: Mid-term critique (includes homework and classwork assignments)
30%: Final critique (includes homework and classwork assignments)
20%: Final project
20%: Classroom attendance and participation

Attendance Policy

BCC Attendance Policy
All students are expected to attend punctually every scheduled meeting of each course in which they are registered. Attendance and lateness policies and sanctions are to be determined by the instructor for each section of each course. These will be established in writing on the individual course outline. Attendance will be kept by the instructor for administrative and counseling purposes.

Students are expected to attend every class. Students need to be present to participate in the discussions, see the demonstrations and acquire skill during class time. Three unexcused absences will result in the lowering of one full grade. Persistent lateness and leaving early will effect the student's grade.

Other College, Divisional, and/or Departmental Policy Statements [optional but recommended]

Student and Faculty Support Services [optional but recommended]
