Special Features of the Course (if any) [to be designated by the instructor]

E.g., the use of learning technologies in the course (Internet, PowerPoint, web enhancement via a parallel course website, etc.); the inclusion of technological literacy learning in the course; etc.

Course Texts and/or Other Study Materials

Alternative textbooks or resources can be used by individual faculty with permission of the wellness discipline textbook committee. The Faculty Senate “Policy on the Selection of Texts and Other Instructional Materials,” states that “individual faculty members and/or departments should strive to select texts, whenever possible, that are most affordable for students.”

Grading Policy

A student's final grade for the course is based primarily on his or her performance on the required work for the course (writing assignments, examinations, class presentations, etc.) and on his or her overall mastery of the material covered in the course. A student's class participation may also be evaluated, and the grade thereon may be used as a factor in determining the student's final grade for the course; but a class participation grade will count for no more than twenty percent (20%) of the final grade. A student's research and writing work will count at least forty percent (40%) of the final grade.
