COURSE DESCRIPTION:
LAN 119 Latin I is an introduction to the pronunciation, basic comprehension, and communication of Latin through active class use of vocabulary, grammar, syntax, and to the culture of the ancient Romans. This course is recommended for students who have had one or less (including no) years of previous high school study of this language. Students with more than two or more years prior study should consult the World Languages and Cultures Placement Policy on this syllabus. 3 lectures, 1 lab, 3 credits. General Education Course.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
Upon completion of the course requirements, students will be able to:

1. Acquire knowledge of the essential forms, grammar, and syntax of Latin; be familiar with basic Latin vocabulary; use the present, imperfect, future and perfect tenses in active voice;
2. Understand how Latin fundamentals differ from the forms, grammar and syntax of English, leading to an increased understanding of how both languages function; parsing sentences;
3. Read, comprehend and translate short passages in Latin; use correct tenses and first three declensions;
4. Translate short passages from English to Latin;
5. Learn about the culture of the ancient Romans; daily life, activities, layout of Rome;
6. Communicate daily in conversational Latin;
7. Comprehend the interdisciplinary connection of Latin to science, mathematics, literature, history, architecture and law;
8. Think logically through the structural composition of language; parsing simple sentences;

In support of the above-mentioned goals, the course will include reading, writing, listening and discussion assignments from the textbook, workbook and outside sources (e.g. audio recordings, Latin Websites). Students are strongly encouraged to take an active part in class discussions and writing assignments.

ASSESSMENT METHODS:

Please refer to Grading and Assessment Methods on page 7 of this syllabus.

BERGEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE ATTENDANCE POLICY:
All students are expected to attend punctually every scheduled meeting of each course in which they are registered. Attendance and lateness policies and sanctions are to be determined by the instructor for each section of each course. These will be established in writing on the individual course outline. Attendance will be kept by the instructor for administrative and counseling purposes.

ATTENDANCE POLICY IN THIS COURSE:
The study of a foreign language necessitates that students attend classes regularly in order to achieve proficiency. Therefore, students are expected to attend and actively participate in every scheduled class meeting. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class session. Each student is responsible for all material presented. If absent from a class, students are responsible for obtaining all materials missed and information on assignments.
WORLD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES PLACEMENT POLICY:

Students interested in studying a world language at Bergen Community College may choose to either begin a new one or continue the language studied previously. Students who have studied a world language in high school and have received a grade of B or better, should enroll in the appropriate Bergen course as follows:
