COURSE DESCRIPTION:
LAN 276, Chinese II offers students an opportunity to enhance their skills in listening, speaking, reading, writing, and comprehension of Chinese through active class use of vocabulary, grammar and syntax.  3 lectures, 1 lab, 3 credits.  Prerequisite:  LAN 276 with a grade of C or better, equivalent placement or permission of the World Languages and Cultures Department Chair.  General Education Course.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
Upon the completion of the course, students will be able to:
1. Understand the basic structure of the Chinese language;
2. Use “Pin-Yin” to pronounce the Chinese characters (the phonetic symbols in Chinese);
3. Conduct advanced conversations in Chinese;
4. Pronounce Chinese characters accurately and be able to distinguish the differences between the four tones in Chinese;
5. Communicate (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) accurately and appropriately in Chinese;
6. Use and understand approximately another 350 Chinese characters;
7. Possess the basic knowledge of Chinese culture and society;
8. Write simple letters, notes, and journals in Chinese;

ASSESSMENT METHODS:
Students’ performance will be assessed on the four skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing through the following measures:
1. Listening: Participation in class exercises, class discussion, oral communication with instructor and classmates;
2. Speaking: Conversations in Chinese with classmates and instructor;
3. Reading: periodic sight-readings, reading essays, and classroom discussion;
4. Writing: Using Chinese phrases, sentence structures and vocabulary, and organization and expression of thoughts in weekly journals, short essays, quizzes, and exams;
5. Ability to write emails in Chinese: Frequent emailing to the instructor, classmates and pen pals;
6. Comprehension and description of a situation: Use of audio CD’s, videos, film, and pair/group performances;
7. Ability to define, develop, and explain the student’s area(s) of interest in Chinese and give a final presentation. This project will include a written proposal, an oral presentation to the class, and subsequent discussion involving the entire class;
8. Ability to compare and contrast cultures: Participation in class discussions, writing essays, journal entries, and participating in Chinese Club activities, Asian History and Heritage Week, Diversity week, and World Week.

BERGEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE ATTENDANCE POLICY:
All students are expected to attend punctually every scheduled meeting of each course in which they are registered. Attendance and lateness policies and sanctions are to be determined by the instructor for each section of each course. These will be established in writing on the individual course outline. Attendance will be kept by the instructor for administrative and counseling purposes.

ATTENDANCE POLICY IN THIS COURSE:
The study of a foreign-language necessitates that students attend classes regularly in order to achieve proficiency. Therefore, students are expected to attend and actively participate in every scheduled class meeting. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class session. Each student is responsible for all material presented. If a student is absent from a class, he/she is responsible for obtaining materials missed, information on assignments, etc. by contacting the instructor or a classmate.
Late homework, essays, and journals will be accepted no later than one class from the original due date and will be given half-credit.

Quizzes will be given weekly, promptly at the beginning of the specified class period. Students who are late for the class will not be given extra time to complete the quiz. There will be no make-up for a missed quiz. A student who missed a quiz will receive zero for the missed quiz. Student will be permitted to drop the lowest quiz grade. A make-up for an exam will be given only in emergency situation. Official documentation to validate the nature of the absence is required.
