

Error in email link

Please be aware that it can take 24hrs for the email account to be created however, if you have waited over the 24hrs time period and are still receiving this error (see image below) This error means that the Portal user name and email user name don't match or email account does not exist. Then you will need to contact The Student Support Center at 201-301- 9693

